

DANTE, LA COMMEDIA DIVINA

Franco Ricordi, actor and philosopher, accompanies us into Dante's otherworldly worlds through the recitation and philosophical interpretation of several cantos of the Divine Comedy.

Our stage is a jigsaw puzzle of eternal places such as the Duomo of Florence, the Museo dell'Opera and the Certosa, which merge with the chiaroscuro of the forest, the Selva Selvaggia, with the sparkle of the sea that laps against the Purgatory mountain, and with the dazzle of the sun-drenched Teatro del Silenzio, in Lajatico.

Guiding us is Virgil, a shining shadow of the past, and holding us steady along the way is an unquenchable light: Beatrice's Love.
