

GELO

Born from the DNA of a frozen ice age mummy, Catarina grows up incarcerated in an isolated palace, subject to experiments on human immortality conducted by FUTURE LIFE investigator Samuel. A film student named Joana, just Joana, falls madly in love with Miguel, an ice obsessed classmate, only to see him tragically ripped from her hands during an initiatory journey to a snowy mountaintop.

What can possibly unite Joana and Catarina?

How many lives are there in one life?

Is the end only the beginning of something else?
