LOOK WHO'S THERE

Claudia, saleswoman in an underwear shop, lives in a suburb of Rome. Nina lives with her, her eighteen-year-old daughter, with whom she shares everything. For three years, however, Claudia has been carrying a pain inside of her: Marco, their “man-of-the-house”, died, together with other 9 people, due to a bridge collapse in the region of Marche, while riding back from a vinyl fair, his greatest passion. Life goes on sadly: customers gossip about Claudia’s disgrace, the press looks for her only to benefit from that terrible matter, her eldest sister Katia throws herself away into very nasty relationships, her mother Marisa can’t start a new life after her wedding has fallen apart, Nina can’t let herself go to her first sentimental experiences...until something unexpected happens...
